

LEGEND and KNOWLEDGE

Two wonderful ways to entertain children

BIBLE STORIES FOR CHILDREN

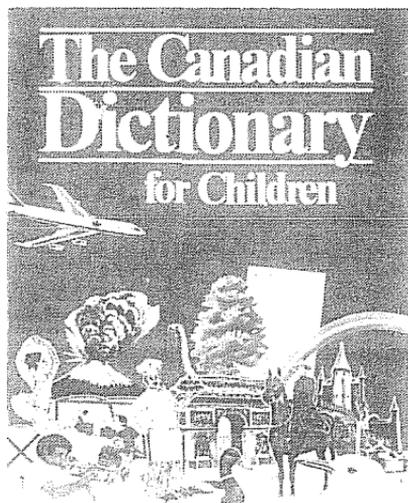

Bible Stories for Children

Retold by Geoffrey Horn and Arthur Cavanaugh

Illustrated by Arvis Stewart

This dramatic presentation of 63 favourite stories from both the Old and the New Testaments is lavishly illustrated with 175 original full-colour watercolours. The simple language is in keeping with the King James, New English and Living Bible editions, each story short enough to be read in one sitting.

$12.95

The Canadian Dictionary for Children

The first Canadian dictionary designed especially for children aged eight to twelve, it has 30,000 entries and 1200 full-colour illustrations. Large type and wide margins encourage easy readability. Definitions have been chosen to reflect the current usage and pronunciation of Canadian English.

$13.95

COLLIER MACMILLAN CANADA, LTD.

Scholastic Paperbacks

The best new Canadian titles at the best prices ever!

Here it is! Round Slice of Moon – an exciting new anthology of Canadian poems, specially selected for kids, by Canada's best loved poets. $2.50

No bookshelf would be complete without this brand new box set from Canadian bestselling teenage author, Gordon Korman. Three Korman classics, plus his latest, Who is Bugs Potter? $6.95

Young fans of Elvy Yost will love The Secret of the Lost Empire, a gripping tale of adventure about a lost civilization and its fantastic treasures. $1.75

For more mystery and adventure, there's Theft of Gold, Robert Jones' new spine-tingling whodunnit in which four young sleuths set out to solve a spectacular caper of robbery and conspiracy. $1.50

Sure to be a favourite among youngsters this season is Frank Conibear's The Wise One, a heartwarming story of a young beaver's struggle for survival and security. $1.50