

The Canadian Library Association of Children's Librarians (CACL) is pleased to announce a raffle for an original Elizabeth Cleaver painting entitled King Rufus, one of the illustrations for the New wind has wings, published by Oxford in 1984. The print was donated to CACL by Cleaver prior to her death in 1985. Money raised from the draw will go towards the CACL Book Awards Fund established in 1980. The fund will help defray the travel expenses of the winners of the CLA Book of the Year for Children Award and the Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Award to enable them to attend the awards banquet presentation at the annual Canadian Library Association Conference. CACL hopes that the fund will also help to give a monetary value to the awards. Tickets are $5.00 each. The draw will be held during the Children's Book Festival. If you would like to purchase a ticket to help the CACL Book Award Fund, send a cheque or money order made out to CACL Book Awards Fund with your name, address, work and home phone numbers to: Andre Gagnon, Head, Children's Services Department, Regina Public Library, P.O. Box 2311, Regina, Sask., S4P 2Z5. Please send a stamped self-addressed envelope with your cheque so that the ticket stub may be sent to you.
