CCL readers say:

"Thoughtfully written articles on Canadian children's literature, interviews with Canadian writers and illustrators, specialized bibliographies and in-depth reviews of current works make this an informative journal for both Canadian and American readers."

— The Elementary School Library Collection.

"These magazines are excellent and help me in ordering and reviewing books."

— W.W., Teacher-Librarian

"I enjoy your magazine. Keep up the good work."

— P.O., Teacher-Librarian

"Thank you for your prompt service in sending my copies of CCL. I have found them very informative and useful as a selection tool for my library purchases."

— M.R., Teacher-Librarian

"As usual, the last issue was very fine and a full issue of wide range and interest."

— M.Z., Professor

"Many praises for your marvelous publication which I have enjoyed reading over the years!"

— C.W., Librarian

"Canadian children's books are being acclaimed beyond our borders and within Canada, librarians, teachers, professors, and members of the media are starting to give our good children's books the attention they deserve. The growth of and respect accorded to the journal, CCL, is further evidence of the improved state of our children's books."

— J.S., Professor

CCL is essential for librarians and for elementary and secondary school teachers. It has stimulating ideas for everyone who cares about children's reading.
