

Table of Contents

Criticism

|   |    |
|---|----|
| SOME MYTHS IN CANADIAN THEATRE FOR YOUNG AUDIENCESZina Rosso Barnieh . . . . .                           | 7  |
| TOWARDS A SIGNIFICANT CHILDREN'S THEATRERex Deverell . . . . .   | 13 |
| THE PARTICIPATION PLAY FOR CHILDREN—A NEW GENREDesmond Davis . . . . .                                   | 19 |
| ON WRITING PLAYS FOR CHILDREN: OR, YOU CAN'T SEETHE AUDIENCE FROM THE TRAPEZEBetty Lambert . . . . . | 27 |
| PROCESS AND PRODUCT: DEVELOPING SCRIPTS FORCHILDREN TO PERFORMMary T. Neill . . . . .                | 30 |
| “ONCE UPON A TIME” . . . BY KIDSNoreen Young . . . . .   | 34 |
| DEVELOPMENTAL DRAMA IN EDUCATIONJoyce Wilkinson . . . . .  | 39 |
| THEATRE FOR SENIOR AND MIDDLE PUBLIC SCHOOLSValerie Robertson . . . . .                                  | 46 |
| THE LOST STORYGloria Shapiro-Latham . . . . .  | 52 |
| COMMITMENT OR COMPROMISEJoyce Doolittle . . . . .  | 55 |
| PLAYING WHAT FOR WHOM OUT IN B.C.Rowland M. Lorimer . . . . .  | 61 |

|  |    |
|--|----|
| SOLILOQUY BY ONE WHO WRITES FOR CHILDREN'S THEATRE |    |
| Jan Truss . . . . .                         | 70 |

Review Articles & Reviews

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| ALL THINGS HAVE THEIR SEASON: HENRY BEISSEL'S CHILDREN'S DRAMA |     |
| David Carnegie . . . . .                                | 74  |
| THE MAGIC CARPETS OF GWEN PHARIS RINGWOOD                      |     |
| Geraldine Anthony . . . . .                             | 84  |
| THEATRE POUR ENFANTS   |     |
| Amy Pokorny . . . . .                                   | 90  |
| QUINTESSENTIAL REANEY: MYTH, MAGIC, AND LOCAL COLOUR           |     |
| Ron Cameron . . . . .                                   | 98  |
| COMPONENTS OF SUCCESS IN FOORD'S PLAYS                         |     |
| James S. Reaney . . . . .                               | 105 |
| POTIONS, PIES, AND PUNS: PARTICIPATION PLAYS FOR THE PRIMARIES |     |
| Meguido Zola . . . . .                                  | 108 |
| OF SHOES AND SHIPS—AND GARBAGE CANS                            |     |
| Betty Duffield . . . . .                                | 112 |
| STRINGS THAT BIND  |     |
| Cate Roberts . . . . .                                  | 115 |
| TEACHING CANADIAN HISTORY THROUGH PARTICIPATION DRAMA          |     |
| Janice Wiseman . . . . .                                | 118 |
| TREASURE TROVE, REAL AND SPURIOUS                              |     |
| Patrick Verriour . . . . .                              | 121 |
| CAMPBELL'S VARIETY: FIVE ONE-ACTERS                            |     |
| Marshall Matson . . . . .                               | 124 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| ERIC NICOL'S PLAYS FOR CHILDRENShirley Lorimer . . . . .                  | 127 |
| SUBTLE FRIVOLITYGilbert Drolet . . . . .                                  | 129 |
| CANADIANS IN WONDERLAND: NEW PLAYSFOR CHILDRENEugene Benson . . . . . | 132 |
| CHILDREN ARE PEOPLE IN REX DEVERELL'S PLAYSBrian Conway . . . . .         | 136 |
| THE GOOD VERSUS THE BADLesia Davis . . . . .                              | 139 |
| CONFUSION AND TEDIUMMalcolm Page . . . . .                                | 142 |
| REJUVENATING OUT OF DATE PLAYSGerald J. Rubio . . . . .                   | 144 |

CLARKE IRWIN

the best in books for young people

THE HAND OF ROBIN SQUIRES

by Joan Clark

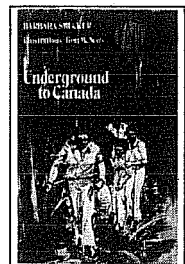

A boy enslaved by his pirate uncle in Canada: a thrilling adventure, based on historical fact. $7.95

UNDERGROUND TO CANADA

by Barbara Smucker

Escaping from slavery via the Underground Railway – a powerful lesson in human dignity. $7.95

the national publishers