

Table of Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| ACKNOWLEDGMENTS | 3 |
| LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS | 3 |
| PREFACE: | |
| Leonard Grove | 4 |
| THE ADVENTURE OF LEONARD BROADUS | |
| Frederick Philip Grove | 5 |
| AFTERWORD: GENESIS OF A BOYS' BOOK | |
| Mary Rubio | 127 |
| THE PUBLISHING HISTORY OF LEONARD BROADUS | 157 |
| A NOTE ON THE MANUSCRIPT | 164 |

Review-Articles and Reviews

| | |
|--|-----|
| VALUE AND MEANING IN CHILDREN'S LITERATURE | |
| Johan L. Aitken | 171 |
| THE METAPHOR OR THE MORAL? DIDACTICISM IN CONTEMPORARY ADOLESCENT FICTION | |
| William Blackburn | 175 |
| MEMORIES AND PICTURES OF PIONEER LIFE | |
| Gwyneth Evans | 177 |
| ALL YOU NEED IS LOVE? | |
| Jacquie Hunt | 180 |
| EMILY CARR | |
| Helen J. Dow | 183 |
| CHILD IN THE WILDERNESS | |
| Vivienne Denton | 187 |
| CHILDHOOD EXPERIENCE IN CANADA | |
| Carla Newbould | 190 |
| THE MYSTERIOUS EAST | |
| Jetske Sybesma-Ironside and Muriel Whitaker | 192 |
| MR. DRESSUP AND THE FRIENDLY GIANT IN PRINT | |
| Carol Anne Wien | 196 |
| CANADIAN CHILDREN'S RECORDS, CONTINUED | |
| Gary H. Paterson | 199 |
| WILFRED EGGLESTON: FRONTIER NOVELIST | |
| David W. Atkinson | 202 |
| BOOKS REVIEWED IN THIS ISSUE | 207 |

The cover picture of Leonard Grove at age 9 was taken the same year that The Adventure of Leonard Broadus was written (1939). Courtesy of Leonard Grove.

Acknowledgements

I am deeply indebted to Leonard and Mary Grove who have graciously spent many hours with me reminiscing about Catherine and Frederick Philip Grove. I am also grateful to Richard Bennett, the Archivist at the University of Manitoba, who gave detailed answers to my numerous inquiries, to Archivist C.A. Santoro, and to staff members, Mary Pallett and Kathryn Dean, whose assistance and friendship made my subsequent research trips to Manitoba very pleasant. I also want to acknowledge the invaluable assistance of Professors Elizabeth Waterston, Gerald J. Rubio, Norman Shrive, Carl Ballstadt, Leslie Monkman, and John R. Sorfleet. I acknowledge indebtedness to others also: to Archivist Glenn Lucas of the United Church Archives; to Anne McDermaid of Queens University; to Dr. C. Heber Dickinson, former Steward of Ryerson Press; and to Mrs. Kathleen Cruikshank, daughter of Archer Wallace; to Mrs. Gladys Todd, Harry Barrett, and Douglas King of Simcoe; and to Bonnie Hulse, my typist and assistant. The University of Guelph gave me generous support for research and travel costs, and McMaster University also assisted with expenses. Finally, on behalf of Canadian Children's Literature, I want to express gratefulness to the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, whose publication grant has made this book possible.

Mary Rubio
Guelph, 1983

List of Illustrations

| | |
|---|-----------|
| 1. Leonard Grove in 1939 | Cover |
| 2. Leonard Grove in the mid-thirties | 129 |
| 3. Leonard Broadus and the airplane | 131 |
| 4. Leonard Broadus escaping from his uncle's house | 31 |
| 5. Catherine, Frederick, and Leonard Grove in Simcoe | 138 |
| 6. Mrs. Frederick Philip Grove (Catherine) in 1957 | 139 |
| 7. Frederick Philip Grove around 1927-28 | 141 |
| 8. Leonard Grove and his dog "Captain" in 1938 | 142 |
| 9. Leonard Broadus and his uncle | 143 |
| 10. Three views of the Groves' home in Simcoe | 144 |
| 11. Monroe Landon's estate in Simcoe | 145 |
| 12. The Lake Erie shore line | 146 |
| 13. F.P. Grove and his Simcoe friends | 147 |
| 14. Views of the Grant Fox peach farm | 148 |
| 15. Grove's hand drawn maps of "Rivers, Ontario" | 149 & 150 |
| 16. Grove's own snapshots of the flood | 151 |
| 17. The Canadian Boy edition of Leonard Broadus | 161 |
| 18. Page 2 of The Canadian Boy edition | 163 |
| 19. The cover of the holograph copy of Leonard Broadus | 166 |
| 20. The first page of the holograph | 167 |